At 7:05 Chairman George Hudgins called the meeting to order. Mr. Hudgins then asked Mr. Cory Routh to make any announcements and to give the status of the fund.

Mr. Routh stated that VMRC had estimated the revenues for October through December of 2002 would be about $350,000, in reality the amount was $500,000, which indicates an increase in license revenues. Mr. Routh said the in December 2002 there will be about $685,000. Mr. Routh then stated than for the year 2003 that there will be approximately $818,000 pre-allocated to several projects. Based on a 1.6 million projection for 2003, this will leave approximately $700,000 for new projects in 2003.

Mr. Routh then asked for approval of the Minutes from the September 9, 2002 meeting. Corrections were made and a motion was made by Mr. Rhodes and seconded by Mr. Duell. The vote was unanimous to accept the minutes as corrected.
